

Also on 8 July, AUER was sent back to Freising for formal interrogation.

(Mount Operation)

13. In view of the services rendered by Neunteuffel, Auer, Moravscic and Kochs, and in view of the local curiosity and prejudice against them, it was thought advisable to pay off in the only medium of any value - transportation to such place as each desired. In the case of Neunteuffel, Auer and Moravscic, orders for their internment prevented them from obtaining this advantage for themselves, but both Neunteuffel and Moravscic had persons dependent upon them. ^{12 July} _{W.C.
